ELECTIVES 2009

Slangur og slettur • Slang and loanwords

Helga Hilmisdóttir

Fjöldi 40

Staður: Núpur resp. University Centre

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: Good beginner's vocabulary (A2)

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

This course consists of two parts: a) a lecture on slang and code switching in Icelandic teenage talk, and, b) an exercise based on the new vocabulary. The introductory presentation will begin by briefly outlining the official language policy in Iceland, followed by a discussion on Icelandic slang. In the second half of the lecture, students will work on vocabulary exercises, e.g. scan blogs and read pop lyrics that contain slang words.

Skill: A theoretical understanding of the use of code switching in teenage talk and the knowledge of the most common slang words used in everyday speech.

Language of teaching: English and Icelandic (supported by powerpoint).

Íslensk málstefna • Icelandic language policy

Helga Hilmisdóttir

Fjöldi 40

Staður: Núpur

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: Good beginner's vocabulary (A2)

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

This course consists of two parts: a) a lecture on Icelandic language policy, and, b) exercises based on the the lecture. During the lecture, students will learn the reasons for Icelanders' allegedly strict language policy, and how it has been institutionalized and presented in schools and in the media. Furthermore, students will see some examples of how Icelanders create their own words instead of using international words, such as leikhús 'theatre' and tölva 'computer'.

Bókun valnámskeiða:

www.hsvest.is > MySchool

Færni: An understanding of how Iceland's official language policy has shaped the Icelandic language.

Búðarall • Shopping Rallye

Sigurborg Þorkelsdóttir og Ólöf Bergmannsdóttir

Fjöldi 20

Staður: University Centre (start)

Prerequisites: Students have to be able to ask questions and know the numbers (A1 and A2)

Learning outcomes:

Students will be divided into small groups and sent on a mission in downtown Ísafjörður. At the first stop, they will receive a map and instructions on where to go. At each stop, the students have a task they will have to complete, e.g. find a particular person in the store and ask them a question or find out how much a particular item costs. They will also have to mark the places on the map. The answers to all the questions will be submitted to the course leader when the last task has been completed.

Skills: Understanding simple instructions and the ability to ask for simple information in Icelandic. Vocabulary regarding the town centre, money and shopping.

Language of teaching: Icelandic

Íslenskar nútímabókmenntir • Modern Icelandic Literature

Helga Hilmissdóttir

Fjöldi 20

Staður: Núpur resp. University Centre

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: None

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes: The students will hear a lecture given in Icelandic (and some English) of some of the most important writers in Iceland today. The presentation is delivered with the help of power point as well as a list of words that are important when discussing literature and authors. The lecture is given in the library in Ísafjörður, and Icelandic library words and etiquette vocabulary (please, turn off your cellphones, don't eat in the library etc.) will also be part of the program.

Færni: Vocabulary connected to literature and libraries, and the ability to understand and give simple instructions

Language of teaching: Icelandic and English (supported by powerpoint).

Language of teaching: Icelandic.

Orðsifjar • Etymology

Peter Weiss

Fjöldi 40

Staður: Núpur

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: Basic knowledge of some other germanic languages than English is necessary (Scandinavian languages, German, Dutch).

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

Students will learn basic facts about the relationship between the Germanic languages. They will be able to make a difference between genetic relationship and semantic relationship of words, as well as between real cognates and false friends. Some basic facts about change of pronunciation in the Germanic languages will make it easier for the students to connect words, that, at first sight, look different, but are closely related.

Through examples students will gain experience and will train the skill of making targeted/systematic guesses. This will make it easier for students to find out the meaning of words by context and etymology and it will help to memorise vocabulary in a systematic way.

Færni: Theoretical understanding of languages relationship. Comparative linguistics.

Language of teaching: Íslenska, enska, þýska, skandinavíska

Eldhús og Sulta • Kitchen and Jam*Guðmundur Helgason

10

Staður: Núpur kitchen

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: Students must bring blueberries on their own. There will be empty glasses available, as well as sugar and other ingredients. Students pay íkr 1000 for the ingredients.

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

Students will receive a vocabulary of kitchen-related vocabulary and get a short presentation of kitchen-utilities. With this knowledge and the ingredients, they will make their own jam from their own blueberries. By listening to the cook advising exclusively in Icelandic, the students will learn to understand – otherwise the jam will fail ...

Færni: Listening. Asking. Vocabulary.

Language of teaching: Íslenska

Hraðlestur • Scanning texts*Peter Weiss*Fjöldi: 20Staður: NúpurForkröfur/Prerequisites: --Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

Most texts we read, we do not read thoroughly, we only scan them through. When we find something interesting, we slow down the reading tempo and begin to read thoroughly. This is very difficult in a new language, still, extremely necessary. Students in this course will exercise scanning through texts in a systematic way, making use of not only the words, but also pictures, text design, paragraphs, key words.

Færni: Reading. Vocabulary.

Language of teaching: Íslenska, enska.

Minningargreinar • Obituaries/Necrologies*Heiðrún Tryggvadóttir*Fjöldi: 25Staður: Núpur

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: Students must have learned about family relationship and be able to use the words for the family members.

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

Students will find in newspaper Morgunblaðið lots of necrologies. Before the necrology, there is always information on the life of the person in question: place of birth, family, parents, sisters, brothers, spouses, children, children before marriage, children's children ... and work. It is hard work to struggle through the life of Icelandic families, but students in this elective will get help to get order in the chaos, to make family trees and understand the relationship in Icelandic families as well as a part of Icelandic society. They will learn to understand written texts of this standardised text type and will be able to produce a similar text on their own family or any invented/fictitious family.

Færni: Reading. Listening. Writing. Vocabulary.

Language of teaching: Íslenska

Heiðrún Tryggvadóttir and Fjölur Ásbjörnsson, prestur í Holti/Önundarfirði 100

Staður: Núpur kirkja

Forkröfur/Prerequisites: --

TIME: Not in the regular scheme, please cf. main scheme: Sunday evening, 16.08.09, 20:00, Núpskirkju. Please register so we know the number of photocopies needed.

Hæfniviðmið/Learning outcomes:

Students will take part in an Icelandic Lutheran mass. For students who know the liturgy and the bible in their mother tongue, the mass is a formidable way to practice language, as texts are easily recognised and normally translated word by word. Students will have to listen to readings of different texts and the Bible, sing psalms and take part in the liturgy. The Bible texts will be available beforehand in Icelandic and English (and German, Danish, Swedish and Finnish) and the mass form/liturgy will be supplied to the students in written form so everybody learn to participate. N.B. there will be another mass on the occasion of 100 years of Skráðurpark and 70 years anniversary of Núpskirkja in the church in Núpur Saturday, 08.08.09, 13:00.

Færni: Pronunciation. Speaking. Listening. Reading.
