We invite you to an excursion to the sites of the Gísla Saga, in the spectacular nature of the West Fjords. Please note that most of the trip will be in quite wild nature, far from shopping, restaurants, internet, telephone. Yet Ísafjörður, with all facilities, is quite near, in case of emergency.

The program includes the following:

- Introduction Gísla saga (lecture, discussion)
- Bus trip to Haukadalur (45 min drive one way), guided tour of the sites of Gísla Saga
- Possibility of picnic/barbecue at the beach
- Solo play: Gísli Súrsson: instructive and funny and in English, after seeing the play, you will definitely understand the saga!
- Bus trip to the edge of Geirþjófsfjörður (90 min drive one way), guided tour to the sites of Gísla Saga down in the fjord. The tour will be guided by two specialists, a specialist in the sites of the saga and a scholar of literature. N.B. Bad paths, in many places no paths at all. Good shoes and clothes for all weather requested.
- Admission fee to Hrafnseyri museum, hot spot of Icelandic Identity, where Jón Sigurðsson, leader of the Icelandic independence movement, was born in 1811.

Not included:

- Any meals
